About Rhea

Rhea has more than 20 years public accounting experience with a focus in financial institution taxation and consulting. She consults with banks regarding bank tax research issues, strategic planning, regulatory reporting research and financial projections related to mergers, acquisitions and capital planning. Rhea prepares regulatory applications and accompanying forecasted financial statements for banks and bank holding companies and consults with bank clients regarding tax planning issues. Rhea manages and supervises tax compliance engagements and is a frequent presenter at external client seminars and industry association conferences on BASEL III, call reports and tax issues.

Rhea is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Minnesota Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Rhea earned her Bachelor of Science, Accounting from Minnesota State University, Mankato and attended the AICPA National Banking School - Charlottesville, Virginia and holds the Tax Planning and Advising for Closely Held Businesses Certificate from the AICPA Educational Achievement Program.

I feel the work I do every day makes a difference to our clients and our community. I know when I go home that I truly did something meaningful and important.

At Eide Bailly, the environment is incredibly empowering and the core values of the firm align with mine.
